EXTENSION OF THE THIRD COUNTRY PROGRAMME FOR EQUATORIAL GUINEA

Note by the Administrator

1. The third country programme for Equatorial Guinea, covering the period from 1988 to 1991, was approved by the Governing Council at its special session in February 1988. The Government has requested a one-year extension of the programme so that the new orientations and priorities which are emerging in light of the movements towards democratization can be taken into account in the preparation of the fourth country programme. A round-table meeting and sectoral consultations with donors will be held in 1992 and the Government also wishes that the conclusions arising therefrom be duly taken into consideration in the formulation of the fourth country programme. During the one-year extension, the central themes of the third country programme will continue to be relevant, namely development of the productive sectors to meet the basic needs of the population in the areas of education, health, human resources development and the strengthening of public administration.

2. It is expected that the fourth country programme will be submitted to the Governing Council at its fortieth session (1993).

3. The Administrator wishes to inform the Governing Council that he has approved the extension of the third country programme for Equatorial Guinea for a period of one year, beginning 1 January 1992.
